

CONTENTS

List of Illustrations and Tables	vii
Preface	ix
Acknowledgments	xiii
Introduction	1
1. The Search for Freedom: Black Militiamen in Nineteenth-Century North America	23
2. “We Called It ‘the Band of Brothers’”: Black Independent Militia Formation and the Johnson County Insurrection of 1875	40
3. Creating the Georgia Militia: Blacks and the Road to State Militia Companies, 1865–1880	81
4. “Any Person Capable of Doing Military Duty”: The Georgia Volunteers, 1878–1890s	126
5. “Be Thou Strong Therefore and Show Thyself a Man”: Georgia Volunteers, Colored, 1889–1895	186
6. The Road to Disbandment, 1896–1899	249
7. The New Era, 1899–1905	296
Conclusion	337
Notes	343
Bibliography	391
Index	405